

Energy Management Awareness Training was conducted with the aim of educating participants on the importance of energy efficiency, sustainable practices, and the role of effective energy management in reducing costs, minimizing environmental impact, and enhance the knowledge for utilizing the renewable energy.

Also, providing training to our employees on internal auditor w.r.t energy management system session has been conducted by DNV.

